

image not found or type unknown

In my mind, a president of our country possesses all traits of hero.

He was born in Leningrad in 1952. He lived and taught in ordinary family. His mother was tender and kindly woman. His father was veteran, security guard in carriage-building factory, later he was a foreman. Vladimir was bully at school, but teachers saw his potential. He was married from 1983 to 2013. He has got two daughters. Our president had graduated the Leningrad's State University of Gdanov and had got a specialty "politician".

First he was elected as president in 2000. He had been retired colonel of State security since 1999, full State adviser of Russian Federation of first class since 1997, candidate of economical sciences since 1997, master of sports in judo and sambo, champion of Leningrad in judo since 1976, honored coach of Russia in sambo since 1998. He speaks English and German.

What has Putin done for Russia?

1. For 12 years he has increased the budget in 22 times, military costs- in 30 times, GDP- in 12 times;
2. Has increased foreign exchange reserves in 48 times;
3. Has regained 256 mineral deposits in Russian jurisdiction;
4. Has broken the agreement about section products;
5. Has nationalized 65 percent of oil industry and 95 percent gas industry and others;
6. Has increased the average salary in budgetary sphere in 18,5 times for 12 years, and average pensions- in 14 times;
7. And more others.

He rules our great country correctly. It's very hard work. He runs the country many years. People trust him their lives. Putin devotes himself his country; he excites more the interest and problems of society than personal. Vladimir Vladimirovich is not ideal man, of course. It's normal for people. He is responsible, self- confident and he always opens for people.

I think, Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin is worthy of the title "Hero"