Home is the place where we are born and live. I live in a villiage. My home is a two-storied building that is neither very big nor very small. It had designed it so well with lawn and a small garden. I am very fond of our garden. I water the flower plants at my leisure. In the evening hours, we go to the terrace. It feels great to sit in the there in the evening hours and enjoy the nature. Everybody loves home.
