You can do anything for money. No matter how people say, but in the 21st century this is an important part of life. You are nothing without money. If you have no money, you cannot find a good place in society. As I said earlier, money matters. Therefore, I achieved a good training and a job. But I do not live alone in the world and I understand how hard it is, for example, to live with a large family. I help them. I also help shelters. At the expense of money, I achieved a good education as a lawyer. No, don't you think I don't take bribes. If you are a lawyer, you get a lot. You ask, is money really important in life? Yes - that's right! If you stop lying to yourself the main thing, health and so on, then you will also recognize that in our time the most important thing is money! Whoever has money is happy!

You can buy any products, and not those for which the state's beggarly money is enough. Don't count a penny when you go to choose your own food. And don't lie that you are satisfied with bone soup and shrimp and lobster, you don't want to eat! You can travel, and not sit in your city all the time. Some resist and brave in response to this remark. Like, why do I need all this - and here it is good, everything suits me. It's a lie! Everyone wants to see the world, fly on airplanes, watch the sunrise on the beach and drink rum and cola under a palm tree. Tell me health is more important than money? Yes. But with money, it's easier for you to support him! And if you do not have them, then you will not have health. And if there is, then do the tests and take one more time, and examine, and recover from almost everything. And if you cannot be cured, then this is fate - that with money, and without money you will be a skiff. Love! Money can't buy love! Guys, do you still believe that?! You may not buy love for money, but it will definitely fade away faster if you live barely making ends meet. I do not think that this is a woman's dream to fiddle around and sort out a penny, but, supposedly, to be loved! I am sure that if any woman is offered the option to live happily and not worry about whether there is money today for food, a cafe, or a manicure, then she will choose life with a man with money, and not with a rogue "in love." And she will be more happy! And, girls, do not lie that this is not so! Moreover, it is normal when a person wants his life to be comfortable! Although the topic of my essay sounds like "the main thing is money for me in life." I do not think so! You can't do whatever you want for money. As I said earlier, you can, but no, you can't.

P.s: wrote with imagination.
