Let's start with the fact that being someone for one day is impossible. But nevertheless, if I have a chance to do it, then I will not miss the moment and will do everything to the maximum and squeeze all the benefit out of it. In the world, such a question is asked many times and people answer it in different ways, someone wants power, someone wants a beautiful appearance, which in the end it will not help a person and someone asks for money even though it will end in an instant. The bottom line is that being someone is very difficult, almost impossible, you will live the life of the person you wanted and live your own life that did not suit you.

So if people have such a chance, they run to use it to the end, although they know that this is a temporary pleasure . But if they gave me a chance to do this, I would answer for myself I would like to be a rapper who makes millions, or the president of a huge company, or be a supreme judge to judge and catch criminals, or the chief prosecutor. This is personally what I wanted to do if I had a chance at least for one day to feel. But in fact I would like to be just a millionaire who helps people who really need help. After all, in this cruel and harsh world, and even in the modern world, few people survive to old age if this person does not live correctly. For this money, I would like to build more supermarkets, hospitals, universities, markets for not wealthy people who can safely take what they need. Besides, to build multi-storey buildings with good repair and especially for the poor to build an area in which there will only be cottages and an animal store, because children love cats, dogs, parrots, because they become happier with these pets forgetting their difficult moments in life. But in general, in theory, it doesn't matter who you want to be for one day, the main thing is that you should always be a good person, despite the difficult moments in life.
