Every year I look forward to summer. Not only because long vacations are coming. Summer is a time of travel and adventure. A chance to see and learn a lot. Have plenty to chat and play and take a walk with friends.

Get vivid, unforgettable impressions, memories of which will delight the whole year. Summer presented an unexpected surprise.

Together with my parents, sister, and a young man, I went to rest abroad in Dubai.

When we arrived there, we checked into a great room, everything was top notch.

Then we went to the sea, swam, relaxed.

Then we went on an excursion to the chic city of Sharjah. There, how much everything is beautiful and unforgettable. I was so calm. I spent time with my family, took a good rest. I remembered this vacation forever, not only because I took a rest and liked everything, but also because I spent this unforgettable holiday with my family. After all, it's the most happiness to spend a vacation with family in chic places.

Summer is the most unforgettable time of the year. You can spend a lot of time with family, friends

And get a splash of unforgettable travel.
