My hobby is traveling, but as I am a student, I have to travel only during the holidays. When I was young, I traveled with my parents so much. Every summer, we went to Croatia, and Spain. At this moment I have been at 10 countries. Such as Spain, Croatia, Greece and so on.

My favorite trip was this summer with my girlfriend. We were in Turkey. It was so lazy holydays with wonderful view on Black Sea after very proactive year. During our holiday my girlfriend had a birthday. I organized very lovely surprise, which included balloons, flowers, romantic dinner and cake. By the way the last one was so beautiful, but so God-awful (Turki haven't got normal and tasty cow milk, therefore use goat's milk). Also during the trip we went on a tour of Pamukkale. This area in Turkey with geothermal sources, which have no analogues anywhere in the world.

Another favorite trip was, a travel to France, to Disneyland. We went there when I was 10 years old. Also, we went to Paris, to a restaurant and we ate frogs. That wasn't tasty. But the trip was unforgettable.

About of that, I love holidays and traveling.
