Why do I want to become an entrepreneur? Because I want to be independent, to carry out activities aimed at regular profit. An entrepreneur's career growth, increasing his profits, entering the market does not depend on the whim of a certain leader, but on the demand for his goods or services, on his own decisions. An entrepreneur has economic freedom and freedom of action and is independent of the manager. He must independently solve production and financial problems, make responsible decisions.

I want to be an entrepreneur, because he and his entrepreneurial activity can create something modern, improve people's lives, add new products or services to the market.

I want to become an entrepreneur because he creates new jobs, thereby providing people with the desired interesting work. Depending on his own ambitions or market requirements, he can at any time change the industry of his own production or the provision of services, so that he will never get bored of doing business.

I want to become an entrepreneur, because he, by his own activity, reduces the level of prices, since his presence on the market increases competition in the sphere of goods or services in which his enterprise is located. And that makes people's lives better.

I believe that you need to be careful about choosing a profession. Indeed, the fate of a person sometimes depends on this choice. Most of all, I see my profession in the image of a businessman. Who dexterously knows how to make business plans and achieve success in various fields. So why am I attracted to the profession of a businessman? Most likely because it is more profitable and interesting. Thanks to this work, I can have freedom of choice, freedom of action. I will be able to freely dispose of my abilities, which will certainly develop me as a person.

I like to organize the workflow and command people. And it is thanks to doing business that I can get the emotions I need. I will be able to feel successful, which means happy. Although the question of happiness is not always measured by the number of bills in your pocket. But without money, it is also impossible to live. This means that by doing business, I will be able to develop myself and at the same time earn. Therefore, I choose business.
