there are many pros and quite a few cons, and today I will analyze some of them.

plus, you don't have to go somewhere and go around all the stores to choose clothes, just go to a specific site and choose the right product. this saves you a lot of time . As a rule, prices for goods in online stores are significantly lower than in a regular store . This is due to the fact that the cost of opening an e-Commerce point is significantly lower — company owners do not need to rent expensive premises in areas with high pedestrian traffic and keep a large staff. A large range of products, it is not uncommon for products to be purchased only via the Internet. Using online shopping, it is much easier to find your favorite item than to search for it in regular shopping centers. Disadvantages of online stores: Familiarity with the purchased product occurs only when it is received, and there are often cases when the actual does not correspond to the desired one. There may be difficulties with delivery so if you want to order a gift for the new year, do it in advance. And the worst disadvantage is being deceived.

therefore, order products wisely and on reliable sites and know your exact size so that you don't get a t-shirt that is too small or too big.
