

image not found or type unknown

Law enforcement agencies are a separate group of state bodies authorized to carry out law enforcement and law enforcement activities and protect human rights and freedoms.

Law enforcement is a type of state activity that is carried out for the purpose of protecting the law by applying legal measures in strict accordance with the law and with strict observance of the procedure established by it.

Law Enforcement Functions:

- Constitutional review
- Prosecutor supervision
- Investigation of offenses
- Security
- Execution of court decisions
- Operational search activity
- Public order protection
- Providing legal assistance
- Prevention of crime prevention

Types of law enforcement:

- Judicial authorities
- Bodies to detect and investigate crimes
- Legal Aid Bodies
- Law Enforcement and Security Bodies