

image not found or type unknown

My family consists of four people I, mother, grandmother and sister. About my mother, her name is Vera, she works in the office of a company I do not know! the relationship with mom is very good, but sometimes she starts to fight if I did something wrong. She works until the evening when he comes home my sister and meet her if she's with the bags, I help them to convey. When I get home from College, they make me eat. grandmother's name is Valentina she's 64 years young, against the good grandma she takes care of domashnik household washes dishes cleans work ogorode this is her daily routine. About my sister she's nine years old she goes to school. When I come home, she sits and does her homework and grandma helps her. relationship with sister is good she cares about me and I about her. if my family go to the store that my sister can bring me something. well, sometimes I buy her Goodies. Our family is small but still has relatives grandmother grandfather Kresna, but they don't live with us they live nearby on a different street of the village. I have a big family all family with whom I see every day said.