“ What specific things can you do to achieve your goal?”

If a person aspires to his goal, he can overcome a lot. Such qualities as diligence, perseverance, perseverance, faith in yourself will help in this. Of course, these qualities should be brought up from preschool age.

The goal is the end result. The result, the goal achieved, gives fresh strength for the new. What specific things can you do to achieve your goal? I can overcome many things. I can make myself work hard. For the sake of the goal, you need to sometimes make sacrifices. I can sacrifice time for leisure and recreation. If the goal relates to Finance, I can very much limit myself in everything, so in the end to buy something or to let.

I set real goals in a certain time period. I adjust or replace them depending on the needs and capabilities of my family. I will never step over my child, no matter how important the goal is for me.

A person should always have goals. Without goals, I believe, there is no personality. But don't forget to dream! Any dream can be turned into a short-term goal by your perseverance.
