I had a lot of good days in my life but one of them was the most memorable. Now I'm going to tell you about it.

It was the day when I first time came to my friend. She had asked three of her friends to come but two of us couldn't do it for some reason. When I came she was very sad but happy to see me. We talked about everything for a while and then it was time for a lunch. My friend cooked chicken for me and it was extremely nice because she was vegetarian.

When the night came we went outside to see stars. But we couldn't see them because of clouds so we were sitting outside and talking about space and physics. My friend told me funny stories from her childhood. I was very happy. When it was time to go to bed my friend couldn't fall asleep so I sang her to sleep. The next day I found out that she liked it. I couldn't sleep all night. I was reading a book during that night.

I liked that day a lot. I'm going to do it again this year.
